

Sometimes It's Too Late to Say . . .

May is National Bicycle Safety Month

Respect each other's rights and Share the Road

Bicyclists and motorists share the responsibility to drive safely, be predictable, and obey all traffic laws

www.ncdot.gov/transit/bicycle

From 2002 through 2006, 112 bicyclists were killed in collisions with motor vehicles in NC, and nearly 2,400 were injured. (Source: NCDOT, DMV)

A message from the NCDOT, Division of Bicycle and Pedestrian Transportation & the NC Bicycle Committee

Materials for the Share the Road Campaign are made possible through the purchase of the Share the Road Licence Plates 