Answer ALL questions completely and honestly. Any potentially concerning answers require full explanations. These explanations should be prepared using the provided space on this document. Include all relevant information, including dates and locations. Falsification of any answer will result in the disqualification of your application. Sign and date the second page upon completion of the document.

The following questions are to determine if the applicant has engaged in any past or present behavior which would automatically disqualify them from consideration for the position of Law Enforcement Inspector. You should answer them truthfully and with detailed explanations. Misrepresentation of any material facts at this stage will result in disqualification.
