

Lesson Overview
Lesson Title	What's in Your Parking Lot?
Lesson Description	Students will learn about the effects of littering and how waste can affect them and their env	ironment.
Subject Area	Science
Grade Level	Grades 6 - 8
Approximate Time	1 hour
Materials	Attached handout, gloves, plastic bags
Lesson Foundation
Vocabulary Associated with Less	on	Activating Strategy
water pollution, littering		The teacher will lead a discussion on water pollution and littering.
Teaching Strategy		Guided Practice
i cuching bit ucegy		Guideu Fractice
Input: Teacher will present a presentation regarding	g the issue and	While wearing gloves, students will pick up 5
Input: Teacher will present a presentation regarding effects of water pollution and littering.	-	While wearing gloves, students will pick up 5 pollutants in the school's parking lot and put them
Input: Teacher will present a presentation regarding effects of water pollution and littering. Modeling: Teacher will demonstrate guided practice	-	While wearing gloves, students will pick up 5 pollutants in the school's parking lot and put them in a plastic bag. After returning to the classroom,
Input: Teacher will present a presentation regarding effects of water pollution and littering. Modeling: Teacher will demonstrate guided practice gloves and picking up 5 items of trash.	e by putting on	While wearing gloves, students will pick up 5 pollutants in the school's parking lot and put them in a plastic bag. After returning to the classroom, students must complete a worksheet explaining
 Input: Teacher will present a presentation regarding effects of water pollution and littering. Modeling: Teacher will demonstrate guided practice gloves and picking up 5 items of trash. Check for Understanding: Teacher will assess cogn 	e by putting on izance as students	While wearing gloves, students will pick up 5 pollutants in the school's parking lot and put them in a plastic bag. After returning to the classroom,
 Input: Teacher will present a presentation regarding effects of water pollution and littering. Modeling: Teacher will demonstrate guided practice gloves and picking up 5 items of trash. Check for Understanding: Teacher will assess cogn participate in class activities. Teacher will ask pertin 	e by putting on izance as students	While wearing gloves, students will pick up 5 pollutants in the school's parking lot and put them in a plastic bag. After returning to the classroom, students must complete a worksheet explaining
 Input: Teacher will present a presentation regarding effects of water pollution and littering. Modeling: Teacher will demonstrate guided practice gloves and picking up 5 items of trash. Check for Understanding: Teacher will assess cogn 	e by putting on izance as students	While wearing gloves, students will pick up 5 pollutants in the school's parking lot and put them in a plastic bag. After returning to the classroom, students must complete a worksheet explaining
 Input: Teacher will present a presentation regarding effects of water pollution and littering. Modeling: Teacher will demonstrate guided practice gloves and picking up 5 items of trash. Check for Understanding: Teacher will assess cogn participate in class activities. Teacher will ask perting gain understanding through student answers 	e by putting on izance as students	While wearing gloves, students will pick up 5 pollutants in the school's parking lot and put them in a plastic bag. After returning to the classroom, students must complete a worksheet explaining how each of those pollutants can affect the water.
Input: Teacher will present a presentation regarding effects of water pollution and littering. Modeling: Teacher will demonstrate guided practice gloves and picking up 5 items of trash. Check for Understanding: Teacher will assess cogn participate in class activities. Teacher will ask pertin gain understanding through student answers Independent Practice	e by putting on lizance as students ent questions and	While wearing gloves, students will pick up 5 pollutants in the school's parking lot and put them in a plastic bag. After returning to the classroom, students must complete a worksheet explaining how each of those pollutants can affect the water. Summarizing Strategy
Input: Teacher will present a presentation regarding effects of water pollution and littering. Modeling: Teacher will demonstrate guided practice gloves and picking up 5 items of trash. Check for Understanding: Teacher will assess cogn participate in class activities. Teacher will ask pertin gain understanding through student answers Independent Practice Students will make a poster to discourage students for	e by putting on lizance as students ent questions and	While wearing gloves, students will pick up 5pollutants in the school's parking lot and put themin a plastic bag. After returning to the classroom,students must complete a worksheet explaininghow each of those pollutants can affect the water.Summarizing StrategyStudents will present information on one of their
Input: Teacher will present a presentation regarding effects of water pollution and littering. Modeling: Teacher will demonstrate guided practice gloves and picking up 5 items of trash. Check for Understanding: Teacher will assess cogn participate in class activities. Teacher will ask pertin gain understanding through student answers Independent Practice	e by putting on lizance as students ent questions and	While wearing gloves, students will pick up 5 pollutants in the school's parking lot and put them in a plastic bag. After returning to the classroom, students must complete a worksheet explaining how each of those pollutants can affect the water. Summarizing Strategy