A rain garden uses vegetation to slow the flow of stormwater from your roof, driveway, and yard.

How to create YOUR rain garden

1. Choose a low-lying site that receives runoff
2. Prepare the soil to a depth of 6 inches
3. Select wetland-type plants
4. Install plants, water thoroughly, and add 3 inches of mulch
5. Weed regularly and mulch every spring

Turn this…

…into this

…or this

Be part of the solution to stormwater pollution—plant a rain garden in your yard.