

Note: This concept is for planning purposes and only represents an operationally feasible corridor concept for consideration by the Moore County Transportation Committee (MCTC). The concept is subject to change and based upon the projected growth and development estimates submitted and approved by local county and municipal boards in 2014. The concept will need to be funded, and the final design will be determined by environmental study.

Moore County
CONCEPTUAL ONLY
Cameron Bypass
Date: 03/18/15

